NEVER CHANGED STAND ON PACT, HARDING AVERS

Republican Candidate Challenges Anyone to Prove Shifty Attitude.

WOULD CONSULT PEOPLE SAYS HE DOES NOT BELIEVE IN ACTING WITHOUT ADVICE OF SENATE.

By United Press Leased Wire
Rochester, N. Y.—Senator Warren G. Harding today challenged anyone to draw up a parallel column of his utterances on the league of nations and find statements not in accord.

Speaking at a convention held here, the republican candidate insisted that he had held to one position throughout his campaign and again refused to outline in detail his conception of an association of nations.

"I challenge contradiction. I invite any man's parallel of utterances which are not in accord," he said.

"I have unfailingly said that we wish to associate with other nations to end war and promote and preserve peace. The other nations of the world are wiser than our political opponents. They have accepted the fact that there is no hope of uniting Americans, or even a very substantial minority behind the impossible proposal that we should accept the covenant as written. The foreign nations have set their faces to the future. So must America, so much every friend of the new and better order."

"It is easy enough for any candidate who is going to lose to say almost anything about the league of nations or his future plans. Harding continued. But those who expect to be called to responsibility have the task of uniting American opinion behind a workable plan and must, therefore, proceed with caution, he explained.

Would Consult People

"If I believed in attempting to express the purpose of the American people before being clothed with authority to commit them, if I desired to dictate to Congress, it would be possible for me to suggest a new league and say to the nations of the earth and to my native countrymen: 'Take this or take nothing,'" Harding said.

"But I am not that kind of a candidate. I believe in consulting the American people, in fact as well as theory. I still believe in constitutional government and have seen some of the failures which came of flouting it. I realize, much more than ever before, the failure which came of ignoring the senate. I can see no great service in fixing upon a plan and then refusing to change it. My business is to invite American opinion and find a way to national accomplishment. It is one thing to reject a dangerous contract and quite another to say becoming arrangements will be gladly considered."

Rape Article 10

Acceptance of Article 10 of the league of nations covenant would mark the final surrender of America's constitutional principle, Senator Harding declared.

A message handed Harding as he stepped to the platform asked him to tell where he stands on the league "and quit pussy-footing."

"I don't think of my friend who accuse me of pussy-footing. He will listen to this," Harding replied.

"As president I will never submit the treaty to the senate with Article 10 in it."

HUNT FOR MAN WITH MANIA FOR CHOKING

By United Press Leased Wire
San Francisco—A man with a mania for choking women was sought by police here today as a result of the finding of the body of Mrs. Ruby Allen, of Mobile, Ala., in a local hotel.

She had been strangled to death. Police believed the same murderer killed Miss Ella Carlson, at Piedmont, two months ago by choking.

Miss Allen's body was identified by two men, one of them being William Digging, chauffeur. Digging said he knew Mrs. Allen in Mobile.

ORDER TROOPS TO EVACUATE MINSK

Polish Government Angered at Disobedience to Its Instructions.

By United Press Leased Wire
Warsaw.—Polish troops which occupied Minsk in spite of orders, the government announced today.

Soviet troops have compelled the Poles to group some forces near the center of the former line, the statement said.

Gen. Pilsudski announced as a reward for his soldiers he had asked the government to divide reconquered lands among them.

It was reported here 76 Ukrainians had been ordered executed in Odessa when bolshevik authorities learned of an alleged Ukrainian plot.

The Polish government will attempt no negotiations with Lithuania over the occupation of the city of Vilna until the matter has been discussed with the league of nations, it was announced.

UNABLE TO FIND HOW DENTON DIED

MURDER OF WEALTHY LOS ANGELES MAN IS STILL BAFFLING POLICE.

By United Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif.—Failing to find a bullet in the body of Jacob C. Denton, surgeons who conducted an autopsy today were still mystified as to the real manner in which the wealthy mining man came to his death here about June 2.

An X-ray examination of Denton's body revealed his neck had been broken. A small perforation of the flesh of his neck, just back of the left ear and directly in line with the fractured vertebrae, was said by surgeons to have been a possible bullet wound.

Dr. A. F. Wagner, who performed the autopsy after the body was removed from a burial vault, declared he was not prepared to state that death was caused by the broken neck. He advanced the belief the fracture might have resulted from the body having been dragged down stairs to the basement where it was found buried.

RUSSIA WILL AID YANKS IF U. S. FREES E. V. DEBS

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C.—Russian soviet authorities have proposed in a roundabout way to extend relief to Americans held in Russia if "political prisoners" in this country were released. It was learned today.

It is understood Russia particularly indicated her desire for the release of Eugene V. Debs, imprisoned socialist candidate for president. Officials here pointed out Debs is not a Russian but a United States citizen accused of violating American laws and therefore Russia could have no direct interest in his case.

Russia seems to be under the impression this country is holding "hostages" it was said.

Efforts to obtain release of Americans in Russia have been made through Dr. Hansen, Arctic explorer. There are about 30 Americans in Russia but only five are held in jail.

Candidates and Their Managers Enliven Election Fight With Countless Claims and Counter-Claims — Confidence Is Growing in Both Camps.

(By Ed. L. Keen)
By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—"I am not concerned with the interpretation anyone else may place on Senator Harding's declarations," said Senator Johnson, when asked how he coordinated the position taken by Root, Taft and other pro-league republicans with his own.

"No bitter-ender ever used more emphatic language against the league. The things he said in those speeches were even more bitter than any uttered by us go-called irreconcilables. It is absurd for anyone to say that a candidate who has turned his back on the league is going into it. This is to assert something that Harding distinctly said he would not do.

"The issue in this campaign is the league of nations. It isn't the aspiration of the people to promote peace and prevent war. It is the specific, definite, concrete contract negotiated at Versailles."

New York.—The political atmosphere today was palpitating with challenges, denials, claims, counter-claims, interpretations, reservations and statements of lifelong republicans who have decided to turn democratic and lifelong democratic vice versa.

Governor Cox has been promised a reward by Senator Harding if he can point out a single word of inconsistency or any indication of change of position in his various speeches regarding the league of nations. Incidentally Senator Harding opens the competition to all Americans.

Elihu Root has received from Governor Cox, seconded by Franklin D. Roosevelt, a cordial invitation to join the Ananias club for his assertion in his speech at Carnegie hall Tuesday night that Mr. Cox declared that he will "insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it."

It was confidently expected today that Root would reject the invitation. Chairman Hays of the republican national committee, returned from a series of conferences at Chicago with western leaders, predicting a Harding landslide greater than that of Roosevelt in 1904. He gives the democrats only the "solid south," claiming the republicans will carry every state west of the Mississippi with the exception of Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas. He even predicts the possibility of the democrats losing Tennessee and North Carolina.

Chairman White, of the democratic national committee, who returned today from a similar conference in Chicago, ridicules Hays' predictions, comparing them with similar forecasts made by Chairman Wilson who ran Hughes' campaign in 1916.

A few days ago the democrats published a list of a hundred prominent independents who had decided to vote for Cox. Next day the republicans countered with a list of distinguished clergymen who had aligned themselves with Harding. Then the democrats came back with a list of leading women who had joined in an appeal to the womanhood of America to support the democratic standard bearers.

Almost daily the publicity departments of the two national committees are handing out interviews with proselytes of more or less distinction.

Senator Hiram Johnson has started his invasion of the east with a strong appeal to anti-league citizens to vote for Harding.

SHOOT PARTNER FOR BREAKING UP HIS HOME

By United Press Leased Wire
Cincinnati.—Howard Phillips, 34, part owner of a chain of patent bakeries in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, was instantly killed last night at Newport, Ky., near here by J. B. Murray, 26, Evansville, Ind., his former partner.

Phillips was with Murray's wife, when the shooting occurred.

Following the shooting Murray entered a taxi, drove to Newport police headquarters and laying his automatic on the desk said to the officer in charge:

"There it is. I just shot a man. He broke up my home."

Mrs. Murray's suit for divorce on the grounds of cruelty is pending in Kentucky. Her husband, according to his attorney, sought a reconciliation.

HISS HARDING AND CHEER COX IN WILMINGTON

Big Crowd Hoots Republicans When Cox Describes Anti-Pact Fight.

ACCEPTS RESERVATIONS

Democrat Demands Root Retract Statement That Cox Is Standpatter.

Baltimore, Md.—Gov. Cox, upon his arrival here this afternoon, stated that he would claim the reward which Senator Harding offers to anyone who can show any "inconsistency of change of position in his campaign speeches."

"I can show that within the last eighteen months, Senator Harding has assumed 13 positions on the league of nations issue," Cox said.

"That ought to win the reward."

Wilmington, Del.—Senator Warren G. Harding's name was hissed by an audience which packed a big theatre here today to hear Governor James M. Cox.

The demonstration against Harding's name came when the governor mentioned the republican candidate signed Senator Lodge's "round robin" against the peace treaty.

A short time before the crowd hissed and booed mention of Lodge while President Wilson's name was applauded.

The theatre where the governor spoke had room for about half of the people who sought to hear him. Streets nearby were crowded with people when Cox began his speech.

The governor again ridiculed Harding for implying that France desired to desert the league for a new association of nations.

Governor Cox, as he began his stump campaign in Delaware and Maryland today, declared political events have taken such a decided turn within the last two weeks that "there are incipient manifestations of a landslide" for his candidacy.

"If I am any judge of crowd psychology," he said, "the undercurrent of independent thought is growing so rapidly since Senator Harding declared at Des Moines for rejection of the league of nations covenant that it is engulfing the party wall."

Cox's optimism was due in some measure to the receptions he received during the last two days in New England, generally considered a republican stronghold.

Elihu Root in response to a telegramic demand that the federal secretary of state retract a recent statement that "Mr. Cox declared he will insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it."

Such a statement, Cox said, either shows Root has not read the newspapers since the campaign started or that he attempted to deceive the public.

"I have invariably stated in my addresses and I restate here, my wholehearted desire to make the United States a member of the league of nations and secure that consummation of the purpose of America when she entered the war," Cox wired Root.

"I will accept reservations that will clarify, that will be helpful, that will reassure the American people and that as a matter of good faith will clearly state to our associates in the league that congress and congress alone has the right to declare war, and that our constitution sets up limits in legislation beyond which we cannot go."

In his speech here Cox reiterated emphatically that he would accept a reservation to Article X mentioning specifically the Hitchcock reservation which declares the United States agrees that the league council can only advise and not order the employment of our armed forces and that at all times the right to declare war must be retained in congress alone.

STATES WILSON POSITION

Washington.—Governor Cox stated exactly President Wilson's position toward reservations to the league of nations covenant in his telegram to Elihu Root in which Cox denied he stood for ratification of the treaty without change. It was stated at the White House today.

Cox's attitude is exactly the same as the president took after it became apparent that the treaty could not be ratified without reservations.

DENIES STORY OF DENTON'S SLAYING

Mrs. Peete Repudiates Alleged Description of Los Angeles Crime.

By United Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif.—The murder of Jacob C. Denton, wealthy mine broker, was enveloped in further mystery today by repudiation by Mrs. R. C. Peete, of an alleged statement that Denton was slain by friends of a "Spanish woman" following a quarrel.

The statement attributed to Mrs. Peete said Denton was shot to death, his body hidden away in a cellar room of his home here, and the room sealed with cement. The body was found several weeks later.

Mrs. Peete, an old friend of Denton's, was said to have repudiated the alleged statement in a conference with deputies from the district attorney's office.

Mrs. Peete, it was learned, claimed the shooting in the alleged statement was inferred by the detective with whom she talked.

A coroner's surgeon was to continue today an examination of Denton's body.

FOOT PRINTS TELL OF DEATH FIGHT ON BEACH

By United Press Leased Wire
San Francisco.—The print of a woman's slipper, in the sands of the ocean beach near the San Mateo county line was the only clue detectives could work on today in their efforts to solve the puzzle presented by the finding of the body of a man, a bullet hole in the head, lying dead on the beach.

The scene revealed the tracks of a man and woman, walking about two feet apart, leading from the nearby cliff to within 30 feet of the water's edge. There the tracks merged into a tangle of footprints which showed plainly there had been a struggle.

Then the man's tracks led down to the water's edge, but the woman's tracks were lost.

WOMAN GIVES CLEW TO BANK RUNNER'S SLAYERS

By United Press Leased Wire
Camden, N. J.—A mysterious telephone call from a woman who withheld her identity, gave detectives a clew today in the murder of David S. Paul, aged bank messenger, whose body was found in the woods southeast of here after he had disappeared while on his way to a Philadelphia bank with $40,000.

The woman gave the detectives a tip which resulted in them picking up the trail of four men in an automobile who speeded from the place toward Atlantic City. The woman, who called three times from Mount Holly, was said to have told the detectives she wished to "wash her hands of the whole affair," as she had been promised that Paul would not be harmed.

GIRL COMES HOME LATE; MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo.—Miss Frieda Peterson, 16, a companion of the children of William A. Jack, disobeyed orders last night.

Today she is dead.

Jack shot Miss Peterson when he mistook her for a burglar as she entered the house shortly after midnight. Jack was held for the coroner's jury.

Miss Peterson, who was regarded as a member of the family by both Jack and his wife, had often been instructed to return to the house by 10 o'clock. Jack was awakened today by the opening of the front door. He armed himself and demanded to know who was there.

There was no answer and he fired. The bullet lodged in the girl's heart.

BANKER URGES EXTENSION OF AID TO FARMS

Banking Prosperity Depends on Prosperity of Farmers, Report Says.

CONDEMN AID FOR STATES

Bankers See Effort to Sovietize Federal System of United States.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The safety and prosperity of the banking business depends on the safety and prosperity of farmers, Joseph Hirsch, chairman of the agriculture commission of the American Bankers' association, said in his report to the association convention here today.

The report urged the bankers to use their influence toward properly maintaining the department of agriculture and to help the farmer in marketing his products by encouraging the organization of cooperative warehousing and selling organizations.

Hirsch's report aroused special interest here because of the recent appeal of the farmers to the treasury and federal reserve board for aid in crop marketing. They declared they were losing millions because they were forced to sell at low prices.

"It is high time for the bankers of this country to recognize a more economical method of distributing our food products is absolutely essential to the success of American agriculture; that unless farmers can produce and sell their crops with some reasonable assurance of a fair profit, there will be an increasing tide of men drifting from the farms into the cities," Hirsch said.

Hirsch urged support of the Federal Farm Bureau which is studying cooperative marketing. The farmers need the bankers' knowledge of business organization and methods, Hirsch said.

In another report submitted to the convention, W. A. Sudd, vice-president of the savings bank section of the association, declared against federal aid to states, localities and individuals.

This practice destroys the benefits which will arise from a federal budget system, which the bankers unanimously favor, Sudd said, because it develops bureaucracy and increases appropriations.

On the same ground Sudd declared against the Smith-Towner bill, which would create a federal department of education and calls for federal aid to states. He declared the measure "represents an effort not only to federalize but to sovietize the entire federal system of the United States."

The McFadden gold bill was condemned in a report to the convention presented by a special committee comprised of George M. Reynolds, Lawrence E. Sands and A. Barton Hepburn. The bill seeks to encourage gold production by a bonus of $10 a fine ounce to be paid producers by the government, the money to be raised through a tax on all gold used in industrial processes.

"If at any time the banking situation calls for more gold in the United States," read the report, "we can purchase it in the international gold market far more cheaply than we can obtain it by the doubtful method of an expensive bonus."

RESUME PARCEL POST SERVICE TO HUNGARY

Parcel post service to Hungary has been resumed, according to notice from Washington to the local postoffice. Service was suspended in June, but ordinary and registered parcels will be received for transmission from now on.

Fees, with the exception of those on food, are payable to the minister of finance, and on food to the minister of food. License permits can be secured in this country, or can be secured by the addressee from the Hungarian officials.

TRAIN BANDITS ROB TRAIN IN BUFFALO

Two of the Alleged Bandits Are Arrested Half Hour After Hold-Up.

By United Press Leased Wire
Buffalo, N. Y.—Three bandits, firing revolvers into the air, robbed passengers on New York Central passenger train No. 15 in the East Buffalo yards early today.

George Sinclair, Geneva, Ohio, a trainman, was shot and wounded. The train was standing in the yards when the bandits jumped on the platform of the last Pullman coach. Sinclair tried to bar their way. They fired at him. He fell wounded.

Entering the coach the bandits fired several shots into the roof awakening passengers who were still in their berths. The passengers were marched to one end of the car, two of the men threatening them with revolvers while the third man searched clothing and looked under pillows for money and watches.

Thirty minutes after the hold-up police arrested John Depka and Stanley Depka, brothers. They were taken to the train coach and identified by the passengers, the police said.

WANDERER STICKS TO LATEST DENIAL

Alleged Slayer Avers "Confession" Was Forced by Third Degree Methods.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Endorsed by a rapid fire questioning by the prosecution, Carl Wanderer, on trial here for the murder of his wife and an unidentified tramp, today reiterated his denial that he killed his wife.

"The tramp shot at her. I killed the tramp," said Wanderer.

Wanderer's answers to some questions by Assistant State's Attorney John Prystalski were vague.

He again repudiated the alleged confession that he had slain both.

He declared he had lured the tramp for a few dollars to stage a fake hold-up so that he could shoot his wife.

Statements said to have been made by Wanderer in which he admitted the double killing were said by him today to have been made when he was given a "third degree" examination by police.

TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE WHEN BONUS IS CUT OFF

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Forty Postal telegraphers were on strike here today following the abolishment by that company of the bonus system for excess messages.

The telegraphers walked out in sympathy with two others who refused to work under the new system. Abolishment of the bonus system, operators said, means a loss in pay of $125 a month.

Paul P. Schurr, international secretary of the telegraphers' union, is expected to attempt to adjust the differences today.

RAILMEN STRIKE SUNDAY

Only Capitulation of Lloyd George Will Avert Industrial Paralysis.

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—The British cabinet went into session late today following announcement that railway workers have voted a sympathetic strike with the coal miners.

News of the "surprise vote" of the railway delegates, was received while the house of commons was in session today and members of the cabinet left immediately.

London.—Great Britain was threatened today with one of the greatest industrial upheavals in her history.

With coal miners already on strike, forcing thousands of workers out of employment, railroad and transport men today prepared ultimatums to the government, promising a strike of more than three million in the "triple alliance" if miners are not given the desired increase or negotiations resumed.

Railway workers issued strike orders effective Sunday midnight unless countermanded. The transport strike threat was less definite calling for action toward settlement within twenty-four hours.

"The settlement will be taken between the government and the working classes" unless some step is taken, the transport workers promise.

The "triple alliance" comprising miners, transport workers and railwaymen is regarded as the most powerful labor organization in the world, capable of stopping all British industry if it desires.

It has been contended by opponents of the miners something more than wage demand lay back of their agitation and the threat of alignment of the working class against the government was seen as that "something more."

Parliament was expected to consider the labor situation today.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, which falls on October 26. Dr. L. B. Wood, pastor of the First Methodist church, is to be the speaker.

Final preparations for the event were made at a meeting of scoutmasters with E. R. Henderson, scout executive, Wednesday. Leigh Hooley, assistant scout executive, was made chairman of a committee to carry out the arrangements, and will be assisted by the Rev. G. E. Stickney and Lloyd Morris.

About 200 scouts will assemble at Soldier square at 1:30 o'clock and will parade to the park, probably headed by a band. They will pitch camp, build fires and go through the routine that usually accompanies a week end camping trip. A flag ceremony and repetition of the scout oath and laws in unison will take place at 2:30 o'clock. There will then be setting-up exercises and mass games.

Bridge building, knot tying demonstrations, tower building, signalling, field wireless and daily good turn demonstrations will follow. A first aid demonstration, pyramid building, fire building and water building will conclude the camp program.

The scouts and citizens will then assemble in front of a platform erected for the purpose and will hear the Roosevelt program. It will open with the singing of America by the audience. A resolution of respect to the memory of Roosevelt will be presented by the Rev. Mr. Stickney. Dr. Wood's address, "Side Lights on the Life of Roosevelt," will follow, accompanied by a retreat ceremony.

Presentation of the Hyde trophy will conclude the program. It is to be awarded to Edmund Dohr, senior patrol leader of troop No. 1, for the best all around scouting at the recent summer camp.

"I want the people to Appleton to feel that this is a general invitation for everybody to attend," said Mr. Henderson. "It will give them a first hand, clear-cut idea of what scouting is like, and will give Appleton, at the same time, a chance to reverse the memory of one of our greatest Americans. I hope to see the people turn out in large numbers."

MANY SUGAR BEETS ARE SHIPPED FROM GREENVILLE

Greenville is the center of considerable activity these days. Farmers are hauling in load after load of sugar beets, which are loaded on cars at that point for Green Bay and Menominee. Mich. Two Green Bay men arrived here Wednesday to erect a loading device, and the beets are being dumped on the ground at the siding until this is ready.

The yield in the county is said to be quite satisfactory this year. One car of beets, town of Greenville, raised five acres and realized 11 tons to the acre, which is considered a good average. A large number of carloads are also passing through Appleton from other cities on northbound freight trains. They are usually shipped in gondola cars.

PLACES EMPHASIS ON CITIZEN DUTIES

Dr. D. O. Kinsman Explains Government Process to Appleton Women.

Emphasis must be put upon the duties instead of the rights of citizens," declared Dr. D. O. Kinsman in an address on the "Duties and Rights of Citizens," before the civics department of The Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon at the Vocational school.

"We have been taught through our teachers in the schools and our politicians that we have certain rights to life, liberty, property and pursuit of happiness, but these rights are not inalienable. If I go to New York and kill a fellow citizen, am arrested, tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, is my life inalienable? Oh, no. I will sooner or later occupy the electric chair. If I commit some crime of which I am fined $5,000 and I tell the judge that I have a right to my property, he will turn a deaf ear."

"The duties of a citizen have commonly been considered to consist in going to the polls and voting in the way one considered right, and accepting in a patriotic spirit any offices which might be given one. The time however is coming when people will insist upon a physical responsibility. They will insist upon making their bodies as fine as possible. There are 47,000,000 physically defective people in the United States, and only 19,000,000 physically vigorous."

"There will also be a mental responsibility. It will be the duty of every citizen to produce as fine a mind as he is capable of developing. Lastly, there is the spiritual responsibility. The citizen should have high ideals which he believes in. The citizen of the future must have a spiritual training to prepare him for the daily civic duties. Our duty as citizens involves the surrounding of our fellows with the best possible environment."

"The purpose of a democracy is to make men and women. Our constitution, which has been judged by experts to be the greatest document ever written at one time, is composed of ideals adopted from the Greeks, the Romans and the Anglo Saxon governments. Many predicted that either the power would all go to the central government or to the states, but it hasn't. If the citizen does his duty, he is protected by four layers of government: city, county, state and United States. If I was attacked, the city police would come to my aid. If they were not sufficient for my protection, the mayor would call in the citizens; if they failed, the governor of the state would call the state militia; and if they were insufficient, the army and navy of the United States would be called upon to protect my life," concluded Dr. Kinsman.

BABE RUTH SETS EXAMPLE FOR KIDS

Youngsters Promise to Do Dire Things to Pitchers About Ten Years Hence.

New York.—Beginning with the year 1930, professional baseball should have a batting renaissance.

At just about that time the unintentional tutoring of Babe Ruth will begin to show its effect on the American youth. Kids now at the impressionable age will be beginning to break into box scores of professional baseball and the cards say that a flock of pitchers will begin to yell for a ball a trifle less lively. Owners of clubs, too, will favor legislation to keep a flock of pellets from leaving the grounds every day. Something new in the way of batting achievements will have to be invented, probably, because home runs should be as common then as ordinary hits are now.

The reason for this dip into prophecy naturally is that everywhere in this broad—except perhaps mentally—land, the 10 year old kid is imitating Babe Ruth. They've got his swing, his "stance" and even his "waggle."

Just as a caddy develops into a star golfer, simply through conscious or unconscious imitation of the star drivers and putters he serves, so are the kids of today going to pick up some of Babe's home run methods.

Of course Babe is usually adapted to heavy clouting, but it is generally admitted that his swing and "follow through" help a lot in gaining distance. No one is more apt in acquiring the cunning of a star than the 10 year old boy.

Baseball players just starting their career should avoid becoming pitchers. In just a few more years the mounds-men will be getting their bumps.

HAS PROCESS TO MAKE SUGAR OUT OF BARLEY

Pond du Lac.—Henry B. Burns, local inventor, has applied for letters of patent covering a new process of making sugar out of barley. Mr. Burns discovered the formula which the United States department of Agriculture has pronounced feasible. He uses the juice of green barley heads along with barley malt and by the process of evaporation brings the liquid to the point of crystallization. The sugar produced in this manner is superior to vegetable sugar and almost equal to cane. A desirable sirup can also be made from the mixture of the barley milk and the malt. Sugar at present being manufactured from a malt is sold at 7 to 8 cents a pound.

Appleton Women Attend First Political Rally

Former Congressman Reilly Discusses League of Nations at Meeting Here.

Appleton women who this year exercised the right of suffrage for the first time Wednesday attended the first political rally meeting ever held here expressly for women. The speaker was former Congressman M. K. Reilly of Fond du Lac, who discussed the league of nations from the democratic standpoint.

As political meetings go it was vastly different from those of a few years ago when men sat around in groups, smoking cigars and discussing everything from the presidential race to baseball scores under their breaths while the party leaders, on the platform, were introducing the speaker to chronic "celebrity greeters."

The women, impressed by the importance of their right of suffrage, gave the speaker their undivided attention but they hesitated when given the opportunity of asking questions after Mr. Reilly completed his address. But a few more years of experience and they will be as prompt with entangling queries as the most talented hecklers of the other sex.

"The League of Nations is purely an American idea," Mr. Reilly averred. He said that Roosevelt conceived the idea of banding nations together in an agreement not to fight.

"Planck three of the American League provided for the use of military force to enforce peace, so the plan was strictly an American product, and not 'British made' as some of the critics declare," Mr. Reilly said.

"Mr. Wilson's fourteen points are a foundation of new world peace," continued Mr. Reilly. "Point 14 to article 10. It wouldn't take a lawyer, a college professor or a minister of the gospel to see that. Yet those men who have never objected to point 14 began to kick as soon as they saw the same idea in article 10."

"Some people are objecting to the covenant because they declare that Wilson made it without accepting aid or assistance, but this is not true. Every amendment suggested by Hughes, Root and Taft was incorporated in the covenant."

"As to the League of Nations proper, it provides for three main things: the disarmament of the world; arbitration in case of disagreement, which means the submission of questions to a court or council of the league; and enforcement, that is, if one nation declares war, the rest of the nations will declare a complete boycott, and isolate her from the rest of the world. Any nation which goes to war, will have the cannon of the world turned on her. I am for the covenant, first, last and always."

"As to Ireland, she is in a more favorable position under the protection of the league than before. She has three doors to freedom. The door of foreign assistance which would be closed under the league of nations; the door of rebellion and revolution which is open; and the door of England's good will which is also open."

"Many people base their opposition to the League of Nations on the idea that England has six votes against one of the United States. This is in the Assembly, while in the council, the whole British Empire has one vote and we have one vote. The final decision lies with the Congress," concluded Mr. Reilly.

NAME NO DELEGATE TO WATERWAY MEET

Oshkosh and Fond du Lac Are Only Valley Cities Represented at New York.

Although local business men are deeply interested in the lakes to ocean waterway project, the Appleton Chamber of Commerce will not be represented at the conference which opened Tuesday in New York. The chamber got under way too late to arrange representation at a recent conference at Detroit and decided not to send anybody to New York.

The Oshkosh and Fond du Lac commercial organizations will be represented jointly by Prof. F. E. Mitchell, of the Oshkosh Normal school faculty, who left Sunday for the east. The hearing is in session at the New York Chamber of Commerce office Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The project contemplates an improvement in the waterway of the St. Lawrence river by which ocean going steamers will be able to reach great lake ports. Prof. Mitchell believes it is one of the greatest economic projects of the age and intends to address the business men of Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Neenah-Menasha, Appleton and other Fox River valley points upon his return.

All cities in Wisconsin could benefit by the project, but those like Appleton, which have waterways, would profit much more. Ocean steamers would not be able to operate in the rivers, but packet lines would supplement the liner traffic.

APPLETON AUTO IS DAMAGED AT DE PERE

H. C. Thoreson's automobile was damaged Thursday evening in a collision with another machine at De Pere. The other driver attempted to turn out of the street car track, but the wheels caught in the rails and swung his car directly in the path of the Thoreson machine. Mr. Thoreson's car was not seriously damaged but the other machine was said to be in bad shape. Mrs. Thoreson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hilfert were also in the machine, but none of the persons involved were injured.

ARRANGE PROGRAM FOR C. C. FORUM

Housing Situation to Be Topic for Discussion at Next Member Meeting.

The October issue of Community Betterment, official bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce, will be issued early next week, according to Hugh G. Corbett, managing secretary. It will contain announcement of the member forum meeting Thursday evening, and will be accompanied by the usual return postal card by which reservations will be made for the banquet.

The meeting is to be held at Appleton hotel, with dinner served in the main dining room at 6:45 o'clock. The program committee will make an effort to start the dinner promptly and close at the scheduled hour. Earl F. Miller of this city and P. Linley Milwaukee, will discuss the housing question from housing corporation and building and loan association angles, respectively.

The newly elected forum organization, of which Gustave Keller is general chairman, will be in charge of the banquet. Good program features aside from the speaking have been arranged for, and the acquaintance committee will try to lighten the congeniality and friendship among those who attend, especially where there are strangers at tables. An open discussion confined strictly to the subject of the evening will follow the two speeches.

Each of the arc lights that illuminated the Chicago Coliseum during the Republican convention equaled 1,900,000 candle-power.

PAINLESS POLITICS

The campaign now on home stretch has been called a "quiet campaign." A visitor from abroad would have difficulty realizing America is in the throes of a change of government, for whether Cox or Harding is elected, it will be a change.

America takes its throes painlessly. Although, if the campaign orators are to be believed, the fate of the nation is in the balance, the average American is going to his daily job, or attending to her cooking and baking, just as if the nation will continue to flourish long after the issues of the 1920 campaign are forgotten.

On November '2, about 30,000,000 American men and women will go to the polls, make marks on their ballots and by nightfall America's quadrennial "revolution" will have been accomplished. The next day the loser will congratulate the winner and everything will be over, including the shouting.

National politics is not as bitter and so, perhaps, not as thrilling as it used to be. It was a recognized means of recreation in times when there was no baseball, nor movies, nor golf to provide diversion. In 1834 the militia was called out to guard New York during the campaign riots when banks and business houses were threatened.

In those times political hates survived long after campaigns.

American politics isn't as picturesque as it was, but for what it has lost in color, it has gained in that orderliness that glorifies America as it attends to the important business of electing a new president.

WHERE CHAMPS ARE MADE

The proud city of Cleveland fancies that it won a world baseball championship but it did not. All Cleveland did was to provide two resident players, a ball park and the uniforms.

It has become almost an axiom in baseball that when some new player looms on the horizon his suitcase, if peradventure he has one, will be tagged from a town so small that no one outside the postoffice department ever heard of it. And the eight stars of the newest world champions, the Cleveland Indians, hail from Hubbardstown, Tex.; Taliferia, Ga.; Enos Falls, Vt.; Minooka, Pa.; Milan, O.; Titus, Ala.; Corydon, Pa. and Meridan, Miss. A number of the others came from small cities where country life and employment doubtless was almost as readily available as in villages while only one was born in Cleveland. Many city youths become good ball players but when a star among stars turns up he comes from the country. The one Ty Cobb in a generation put Waycross, Ga., on the map.

The great outdoors makes the great athletes—men of iron sinews and staunch hearts. Our indoor gymnasi-ums are the best substitutes the cities offer for building sturdy physiques but they are poor substitutes at best. A month in a wood lot during a moderately hard winter, sawing and trimming trees and splitting the blocks, will be of more benefit to almost any young chap than a whole season of gymnastics, because it is natural work, done in nature's surroundings, with ample oxygen available. And such exercise also is productive occupation.

It will pay America, in more ways than one, to devise means to make country life attractive to her young men.

WORKERS AS OWNERS

American railroads are bidding for an entirely new set of stockholders—their employees. This, not unknown in other lines, has been the unusual with railroads. Not much had been done to tempt the engineer, brakeman, ticket seller or track walker into becoming a partner in the railroad system on whose pay roll his name appeared. Then came a change. Railroads now are headed toward a partnership of capital and labor in which labor will be partly capital, too.

At the coming meeting of railroad financial officers this will be discussed and all roads will be encouraged to follow the example set by the Lehigh Valley, the Illinois Central and the Pennsylvania, pioneer in the movement to put workers' names on both the pay roll and also the stock roll. Already this year 1,028 Lehigh Valley employees have purchased 4,483 shares, paying for them by deductions at the rate of $5 per month per share from their wages. The Pennsylvania has sold 3,300 shares of its stock to 1,500 of its employees.

This is very different from the Plumb plan of employee control through government ownership but is a long way superior to it. The employee does not become a cog in a sovietized machine but a real partner and part owner. And in it there is a big hint to American labor everywhere. If the workmen want to own industry there is a sure way to do it.

With the wages paid in this country there is no industry so great that its employees cannot own it within a few years through their cumulative buying power. All they need do is to save systematically and put their savings into stock purchases. In five years the railroad employees could buy and own the railroads or the steel workers the steel industry. The labor outlay in transportation exceeds all other outlays, just as it does in most lines of manufacturing, and if that stream was directed back into the business we should very shortly have worker ownership in earnest. It may not be possible in the old world under conditions there but it is possible and entirely feasible in the United States.

"T. R."

On October 27, a great many kinds of people in a great many places in this country are going to observe in diverse ways the birthday anniversary of a great American. That day will be the anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, in 1858.

So much has been written of the man. This piece is to be about two words that Roosevelt brought out of moth balls and camphor, and put into the public display window. They are "Ananias" and "Armageddon." Ananias lived in the Bible and his acts finally caused his name to be used for liar. That was a popularly forgotten tale until "T. R." started his Ananias club.

Armageddon in the Bible is designated as the spot where on judgment day will be fought the final battle between forces of good and of evil. Roosevelt popularized that term in the campaign of 1912, when as against his political enemies he said: "We stand at Armageddon, and we battle for the Lord."

Roosevelt was expert in the choice of words in illustration of his ideas. He seldom failed to reach the heart of things nor of his public. As a phrase-maker he will be remembered as well as for statesmanship.

FOLLOW YOUR HEART

(By Dr. James I. Vance)
This is a good prescription for happiness, and it is not a bad one for duty. Of course it is better if the head and the heart vote the same way. But if they conflict, follow your heart. I know the heart is not infallible, but is the head? I have known people to reason at great length, to ponder and meditate, to counsel with friends, to weigh the pros and cons, and then, plunging head first into the worst.

I have known a girl to choose her mate with her heart, and walk straight into heaven.

For the heart is guided and controlled by love. It does not ask what is expedient, what is wise, what is prudent, what will pay. It does not ask what is anything. It just falls in.

The only thing that can make a happy marriage is love. Love is blind to the bad and argus-eyed to the good. Love adores being unselfish. It counts sacrifice sweet. "Love beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never faileth." Therefore, follow your heart.

We must be sure it is the heart and not the silvery moon that is calling. It is sometimes hard to distinguish between sentiment and the sentimental. One should be well out of adolescence before he takes seriously an affair of the heart.

But my prescription has a wider range than matrimony. I am not so sure but the wisest thing to do in most of the questions that must be settled is just to follow the heart.

The heart is not mercenary. It is not calculating. It is usually the best in us storming the will and rushing to the lips. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

LOST HIS FRIEND AND $1040
Cincinnati, O.—Jarnett Cheavall of Richmond, Ky., had $1040 in his pocket when he started on a taxi ride with a friend. The next thing he remembered he was cold, having been put out of the taxi, somewhere back of Covington, and his friend and his money were gone.

HOW THEY COME TO GRIEF

In a recent 1800 mile automobile tour I happened to be the first doctor on the scene in three instructive disasters. And now that the automobile is coming to be one of our big killers it may be worth while to consider the preventable causes of these three particular accidents.

The first one occurred in a large city. A driver just ahead signaled that he intended to turn a left corner. He was going along at a speed of about twenty miles an hour and slowed down very little for the turn. He turned a very pretty left corner, just a trifle too much to the left, and a little filver scowling hitherward from the left on the side street could not avoid colliding with our road hog. Fortunately, only a few hundred dollars' worth of material damage was done, aside from the ruffled temper of the filver's captain. At a corner is the place of all places where a driver ought to stick to his side of the road and leave plenty of room for the unforeseen coming down the left street. Yet so many drivers do love to sweep around a left corner, cutting off the room that unforeseen may unexpectedly demand!

Even No. 2 was rather more foolish and also more serious. A big car with an optimum speed of 35 miles an hour gained on a small car with an optimum speed of perhaps 25 miles. The big fellow had a very good horn, for he gave it to me and I gave him plenty of room. But for some reason he didn't waste a signal on the little car ahead—he just tried to beat it past. The driver of the little car, however, at that moment swerved sharply over to the middle of the road, and in a jiffy the big car was trying to climb a tree over the field. Some ugly cuts by the shattered windshield were the mementoes carried away by the front seat occupants of the big car. They will use the signal next time they try to pass even the most insignificant bus. Toots are cheap—might as well use one and be sure. I am glad to say the innocent party of this set-to came off without any damage.

The final demonstration was most spectacular of all. Number of cars climbing a long, moderate upgrade. Brand new bus, young driver, bored by the pace, lit out. Passed two or three cars on the way up. Expected to beat out the last just below the brow of the hill. But also, you never can tell what may be coming over the brow of the hill. The hurry-up boy attained the brow and found one car stopped on the right of the road and another speeding toward him on the left. He had to go into the ditch. The car turned over. Kept me nearly an hour nursing the two wounded. Moral: Pass nothing till you are over the hill.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

No Tapeworms Need Apply

What are the first symptoms of a tapeworm?

(D. E. M.)

ANSWER—The person who harbors a tapeworm usually experiences no symptoms, not even the enormous appetite popularly deemed a sign of such infestation. Tapeworm hosts are usually normal in weight or overweight, not skinny, as the popular notion has it. The diagnosis of tapeworm infestation is made by finding segments of the worm or tapeworm eggs (microscopic), and no other symptoms warrant the diagnosis. The most efficacious vermifuges against this parasite happen to be poisons to the human host and therefore the treatment demands the skill of a physician. Blindness has been caused by the incautions use of remedies against tapeworm. Worse still, disastrous poisoning has been produced by ill-advised self-treatment, when as a matter of fact, no parasite was present at all.

Asigmatism

Is it possible to correct astigmatism by exercising the eyes?

(M. E. J.)

ANSWER—No. Astigmatism is an imperfection in the shape of the eyeball or rather an unevenness, and it is as unchangeable as the shape of the nose.

100 Per Cent Superstition

I was stopped from helping my sister can pears, merely because I happened to be menstruating. I think it is just superstition but

ANSWER—It is 100 per cent superstition. However, the whole subject of sex hygiene and reproduction, being kept within the realm of the unknown so far as evil-mindedness can keep it so, is surrounded with absurd superstitions. Ignorance naturally breeds superstition, does it not?

Sport Near New York

By Frederic J. Haekin

New York City—About one hundred thousand New Yorkers of the sort that are supposed to be bound to the pavement for life, and never to get a breath of fresh country air or to roam in the woods and fields, are now furnishing up their arms, buying ammunition and getting ready to take the hunting field.

These are not all or even mostly wealthy and well-to-do New Yorkers, who own cars and membership in clubs and things like that. Many of them are poor workmen. If they had the misfortune to live in rural sections, where the game is not well-protected except on posted lands, they would stand little chance of a day of recreation in the hunting field, but living in the greatest city in the world in a state where game protection is practiced scientifically, these chaps can get a real day's sport for the price of a car or ferry ticket, or a very short railroad journey at most.

So diligently has New York protected its game that there is even good shooting within the city limits. Small game is fairly abundant on parts of Staten Island, and the rabbit hunters also find good sport in Flushing and Jamaica, while Jamaica Bay for the last few years has been really full of ducks. Barron Island, where the city dumps its dead horses, is a good place for shorebird shooting, and can be reached from most parts of the city by the expenditure of a dime. Of course various police regulations restrict the shooting in these urban districts, but they non-the-less furnish New Yorkers with sport every year.

Long Island a Hunting Ground

If you can afford more than a car ticket and as much as a whole day of time, you can get much better sport by going from 20 to 40 miles into the country. Long Island, despite its population, contains a variety of wild country, and is one of the best natural game and fish regions in the world. You can find almost any sort of sport you want on Long Island, from digging clams and catching crabs, to hunting foxes with hounds. There are deer on the island, too, and they are on the increase, but deer hunting is not allowed, chiefly because of the danger of shooting high power rifles so near civilization. Grouse, quail, woodcock and ring-neck pheasants, rabbits and squirrels make up the attractive list of small game. The pheasants especially are on the increase, many of them being raised every year on a state game farm and liberated, while eggs and young birds will be turned over to anyone who is willing to help in this work of stocking the coverts.

Long Island furnishes a surprising variety of fishing, too, all kinds of salt water fish inhabiting its coastal waters, while its streams and lakes contain trout, bass and pickerel.

You would expect that all of the best hunting on Long Island would be owned by private individuals and preserves, and that the poor man would be shut out from the outdoor life, as he is in so many regions where the land is not controlled by the Forest Service or some other public agency. The Forest Fish and Game Commission here says that this is not the case. Most of the lands of the island are farm lands. The law requires that if the farmer wants to keep out hunters he must post his lands with a sign at least a foot square every forty rods. Most of the lands, it is said, are not posted. The hunters have learned that it is not good manners to break fences and shoot crows, and most of the farmers are tolerant of the sportsmen. There are many stations in good hunting country in

It is a simple gun, consisting of only eleven parts, and is said to be unequalled for use in riots, or for chasing lawbreakers escaping in automobiles.

A. This refers to a period of one year in each seven that is allowed professors in some colleges for rest, travel and research.

Q. If one holds straight life government insurance for five years and then converts it to a twenty-year payment policy will the government give credit for those five years on the converted policy?—H. J. H.

A. The bureau of mines states that there have been several instances of coal mines catching fire and burning for several years.

Q. At what age is a carrier pigeon at its best?—L. M. F.

A. The training of such pigeons begins when about three months old, and continues during that season and the next one. During the three following seasons a bird should be at its best.

Q. What is lignin?—E. K. B.

A. Lignin is a substance or mixture of substances which, with cellulose, constitutes the essential part of woody tissue.

Q. Under what office and department of the government are the soldiers' cemeteries in France?—B. F. J.

A. The war department says that the cemeterial branch and the graves registration service, quartermaster general's office, Munitions building, Washington, D. C., have charge of the care of American cemeteries in France and the bringing of soldiers' bodies home to this country.

The easiest way to draw a wagon is with a pencil or pen and the easiest way to build a suit of clothes is to typewrite its virtues and hand it to the printer for insertion.

That's one side of it—now consider our problem.

In so many words, it is our duty today to sketch you dressed in a Fall suit that even your worst enemies would have to admire.

The picture to be perfect must show you on a par with Wallace Reid—for that's who you will look like if you are this side of Balzac.

We give up trying—and so will you if you will ask for a try on—you will have found the suit you want—and we will have found the man we're looking for.

It's a poor rule that doesn't work two ways.

This establishment a quarter of a century ago decided that its business should be conducted in a quiet and dignified manner.

Throughout its history this establishment has denied itself much at the moment that seemed advantageous in order that no departure should be made from its prescribed course.

The present so-called "market-break" is just one of the trying incidents that tests the sincerity of business ethics.

Nervous Breakdown.
 "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
Read the Letters of These Two Women.
 North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."
 ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.
 Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry
 For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.
 You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it. You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions for use. It gives absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

We Give This Book to Any Music Lover!
 The only book ever published to help you enjoy your player-piano, to show the whole variety of music available. Sent without charge.
 If you own a player-piano, or hope to some day, send the coupon now for this remarkable new book. It is not a player roll catalog; we do not make rolls. It is of greater interest than all roll catalogs combined in one.
 It is the first attempt ever made to classify all the music available for the Gulbransen and other player-pianos; to give examples of the most enjoyable music of every kind; to select for each composition the actual roll which is most artistically arranged.
 Musically Authoritative
 Months of time of musical authorities and Gulbransen player-piano experts were devoted to the preparation of this book. Thousands of rolls have been tested. The whole world of music has been searched for the most enjoyable examples of every kind of music.
 Under the editorship of Anne Shaw Faulkner and John Martin it has been made a condensed education in the many forms and varieties of music, a guide to the appreciation of music—always with the average player-piano owner in mind.
 Would You Like To Sing?
 Or would your wife or daughter if accompaniments were easier to play? Any one can play accompaniments on the Gulbransen.
 Thousands of high class songs are ready in player-rolls; words on the roll; no sheet music to buy.
 In this great 80 page book these songs are all classified for you—Hawaiian, Southern, Ducky, Old Time, Love, Sacred, Ballads, English, Scotch, Irish, French—are a few of the classifications. Also High, Low and Medium voices. The best examples of each kind are named and roll makers' numbers given to help you buy.
 Grand Opera Music
 Here is the first list ever compiled of all the opera music available for player-pianos. Nearly every roll with English song words! What an opportunity to really understand the famous operas! And any one can play them.
 What are rhythm, melody, harmony in music? What are the great compositions in the Classical, Romantic and Modern Schools of music? What is worth playing in the folk and patriotic songs of all nations? How can you learn to enjoy good music and understand it? All are answered.
 This book is a many years' program of musical education—not by reading but by example, the real way to learn. It will make your Gulbransen player-piano one of the big things of your life.
 Entertainment Programs
 The American authority on program making—Anne Shaw Faulkner—has provided ideas for every occasion. Popular parties such as Church, School, Christmas, Stag and Children's affairs, have specially selected numbers. Women's Club programs for music study are given in detail, even to suggested encores.
 The entire book is easy to understand, astonishing in the amount of information given, helpful no matter what kind of music you are seeking, purposely designed to help you find enjoyable music no matter what your taste.

McCOY TO SPEAK IN LAWRENCE CHAPEL

Democratic Candidate for Governor Comes Here Friday Evening.

Col. Robert E. McCoy, democratic candidate for governor, will speak at Lawrence chapel at eight o'clock Friday evening. It was announced by the committee in charge of his meeting here. It had been planned to have him speak in the armory.

Both republicans and democrats are on the committee which is arranging the meeting. There has been some talk of organizing a Republican club here and it is possible that steps will be taken after Friday night's meeting. Mr. McCoy will arrive in the county Friday morning and will spend the entire day campaigning.

BUY NEW MOTOR TRUCK FOR ROAD PATROLMEN

The greater part of the meeting of the county, state road and bridge committee at the office of county highway commissioner at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon was taken up with a new motor truck for patrolmen known as the Russell grader which is to be tried out in Outagamie county. A demonstration was to have been given here Tuesday by J. A. Hanretty, a representative of the manufacturers, but he was unable to be here. He notified the board, however, that a truck would be sent here for trial. The business disposed of at the meeting was of a routine nature.

hours at the job of drumming up support now. Two meetings were held in Shiocton this week and a half dozen office seekers have interviewed the voters.

Great activity is displayed by the Non-Partisan league workers, holding frequent meetings at which the opposition is soundly berated for its activities.

The county fight is becoming more intense as election day approaches, both factions claiming victory. Democrats aver that they are making serious inroads into the republican strength while the republicans, while admitting a sharper fight than in many years, are confident of being carried into office on the crest of a republican landslide.

The league of nations as an issue will be injected into the campaign Saturday night when Senator Reed of Missouri comes here to tell why he is opposing it. The following Wednesday Dr. Paul Reinsch, democratic candidate for senator, will speak here for the league. He is said to be extremely well fortified with a knowledge on international law and has made a careful study of the covenant. Dr. Reinsch's attitude is expected to be a reflection of President Wilson's position.

COUNCIL OBJECTS TO PLAN TO ELECT CITY'S ASSESSOR

Referendum May Be Necessary to Determine How Office Is to Be Filled.

KILL PLATOON SUGGESTION

Fire and Police Board's Proposal Receives Scanty Consideration.

A referendum to determine whether the city assessor and several other city officers shall be appointed by the common council or elected by popular vote may result from opposition which developed at Wednesday night's meeting of the council to the proposal to adopt that portion of the general charter providing for electing one assessor instead of three. Acting on the assumption that the voters, taken as a whole, will not make a wise selection of so important officers as assessor, because of the political elements entering into an election, several aldermen argued that the selection should be made by appointment. They contended that the aldermen and the mayor would make an effort to select a competent man, while if it is left to the electors to choose, from a number of candidates, many of whom are often utterly incompetent, but attracted by the prospect of a comfortable salary, the selection may be opposed to public interest.

Aldermen did not intend their observations to be regarded as an intimation that the people are not competent to select their officers but did stress the fact that many influences, aside from the welfare of the city, enter into political campaigns, that it is very possible the incompetent men will be chosen.

It was contended that the assessments are the very foundation of the city's finances and if they are not properly made the city's financial standing is impaired.

The proposed ordinance provided for the election of an assessor for a three year term who is to devote his entire time to the work and maintain an office in the city hall where information will be instantly available for other officers. The salary was not fixed but it was intimated that it would probably be $2,000 or $2,500 a year.

City Attorney Theodore Berg, who drafted the ordinance, said it would be necessary to submit the proposition of electing or appointing all the present appointive city officers to a referendum vote if the assessor is to be appointed because the general charter provides for election. There is also a provision, however, which makes it possible for the voters to determine how their officers shall be named and it is probable that is the way the problem will be solved. No action was taken on the proposed ordinance but it is probable the matter will come up again at the next meeting.

Recommendation of the fire and police committee that the council establish the two platoon system in the fire department died quickly when it was voted to place the recommendation on file. There was no comment.

5 INHERITANCE TAXES ARE PAID TO COUNTY

The inheritance taxes on several estates were turned over to Louis A. Peterson, county treasurer, within the last few days. They were: Estate of Elizabeth M. Mieskes, $92.08; estate of Louis Fredericks, $30.14; estate of Emiline Albrecht, $38.73; estate of J. Hemmingsin, $16.78; estate of Charles Heckel, $2.23.

on the matter. The problem had been discussed in committee of the whole at a previous meeting and it was said unofficially that many of the aldermen favored the plan, but Wednesday night's action gave no indication of that sentiment.

Because of discrepancies in plans for the Fourth ward fire engine house on file in the city clerk's office and those submitted to contractors, all bids for the work were returned, unopened, to the bidders. The architect, Herman Wildhagen, was instructed to prepare new plans and specifications and leave all the copies in the city clerk's desk so that greater uniformity will be obtained.

The council did not look favorably on the recommendation against placing a railing on the steps leading to the city hall and public library and concluded, after a discussion, to refer the matter back to the grounds and building committee with the suggestion that another investigation into the feasibility of installing the railing be made.

J. H. Waite was given the contract for digging a sewer on Fremont street and laying the pipe. His bid was $3 a foot. The sewer is to be 180 feet long and the city will bear half the expense. Ten inch pipe is to be used.

The resignation of F. S. Bradford as a member of the library board was accepted. Mr. Bradford was the last member of the board appointed under the old commission form of government.

August H. Meyer announced that he is unable to accept reappointment as a member of the waterworks commission because his own business requires his entire attention. The appointment of his successor was left until the next meeting.

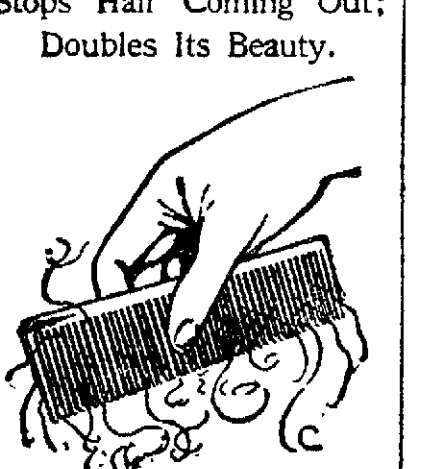

Five property holders on River road requested that that thoroughfare be made a public highway. It is now privately owned. The petition was referred to the street committee.

Millions for a New Stomach

One of the greatest American millionaires said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, spot cash and no grumbling, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away. All his wealth could not make him happy or contented, for happiness largely depends upon digestion. Without health where does happiness come in? After all the stomach plays a great part in everyday life. Without a healthy stomach and good digestion our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. Prevent disease by putting the house in order and strengthening the system against the germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood diseases and their prevention, and he discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that could be easily prepared at the drug store (liquid or tablets). This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This Discovery gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol or any narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. It gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. For over fifty years it has enjoyed the confidence of the American public. Try it now!

HOPE TO REDUCE SMOKE NUISANCE

Hearing May Be Held at City Hall to Thresh Out This Problem.

Some relief from the smoke nuisance which has occasioned much complaint from Prospect street residents is promised by valley manufacturers, according to Alderman Charles Fose, who reported his interviews with manufacturers at the meeting of the common council Wednesday night. Mr. Fose said that manufacturers are doing all in their power to obviate the nuisance, but cannot promise much relief as long as they are forced to use the cheap coal which is coming into the valley.

The principal complaint has been directed against the Wisconsin Traction, Light, Heat and Power company. It was said, Mr. Fose told the council that A. K. Ellis, traction company superintendent, declared he is doing all in his power to eliminate the objectionable smoke but that it is impossible to stop it altogether. He said that a new pit is being constructed under the smoke stacks to hold soot forced out of the boilers by the sharp draft required to burn the dirty coal. Mr. Ellis was also quoted as saying that he is endeavoring to secure a better quality of coal than is now used but in the past he has been obliged to take whatever coal he could get in order to keep his plant operating.

Several aldermen said that the traction company is not the only offender, but that all the mills are belching great volumes of black smoke from their chimneys.

It is probable that a meeting of aggrieved persons and the manufacturers will be called for the city hall in the near future to thresh out the matter in the hope that something can be done.

COX TOTAL STARTS TO CLIMB IN STRAW VOTE

Harding's lead among Wisconsin women, has dwindled somewhat, according to reports from the Rexall straw vote at the Downer drug stores up to October 17. The senator carried a lead of more than two to one for several days, but latest reports showed that he had 3,350 women's votes in Wisconsin on Oct. 17 and Cox had 2,272.

West Virginia passed from Cox to Harding in the national reports of October 15. This was one of the states that appeared to stand strongly for the democratic candidate, but now gives Harding 10,860 votes and Cox 10,314.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT W. R. C. CONVENTION

The Women's Relief corps convention in Kaukauna Friday was well attended from the cities in the district, eighty-six visitors being present. The Menominee Indian W. R. C. was not represented, though the report from that corps was given by Department Inspector Cora E. Harris, showing the Indian corps at Keshena was still doing a splendid work.

A 12 o'clock dinner was served at Immanuel Reformed church in honor of visiting corps. At 2 o'clock business matters were again resumed, when presidents from the corps in the district gave their reports. Mrs. Mary Liebman, Green Bay, presented a report on the national convention in Indianapolis in September, to which she was a delegate from the Green Bay corps. Mrs. William Sempler, Depere, gave a brief paper on "Women and the Vote."

Mrs. Marion Powles House, president of the Indian Women's Relief corps at Oneida, gave a memorized report of the work the corps has done during the past year. The Indian corps, still in its infancy, has far exceeded in money making and social affairs many of the older corps. Mrs. House stated the only drawback to their work was the lack of knowledge of the English language.

The convention closed with election of the following officers for the 1921 district convention, to be held at Chilton: President, Selma Haessley, Chilton; senior vice president, Ella Chamberlain, Kaukauna; junior vice president, Pearl Nichols, Marinette; treasurer, Etha Schroeder, Green Bay; chaplain, Marion House, Oneida; secretary, Jennie Ricker, Chilton.

HINT THREE NAMES FOR FEDERAL COURT SEAT

Madison.—Two names have been suggested as possible successors to the late Judge A. L. Sanborn of the federal court here. The Madison bar will probably recommend the appointment of William Ryan of Madison, to the position. The other name that has been suggested is Bernard R. Goggins, Grand Rapids.

The appointment of federal judges is made by the president. This vacancy will be filled by an appointment of President Wilson. Mr. Ryan, the city attorney of Madison, has been prominent in Democratic politics in southern Wisconsin. Mr. Goggins was appointed as an assistant to United States Dist. Atty. A. C. Wolfe, during the war. There seems to be doubt as to whether Mr. Goggins would accept the position. Several years ago he was tendered an appointment as railroad commissioner of Wisconsin and declined.

In some quarters the name of A. C. Wolfe, La Crosse, has been mentioned. The friends of Mr. Ryan are expected to put his case before the president at an early date.

ASK HUNTERS TO HELP KILL RAVAGING WOLVES

La Crosse.—Farmers in the vicinity of La Crosse, in Houston county, Minn., across the Mississippi from La Crosse, sent an S. O. S. call to hunters in the city, following raids by wolves which resulted in the loss of several dozen sheep and cattle.

The wolf pack has become so bold that attacks on livestock in pasture have become almost nightly occurrences. Miller Brothers, who own a farm on the Brownsville road, two miles south of La Crosse, told how twenty wolves attacked their herd of cattle while three armed hunters stood in the midst of the stock. Unable to shoot for fear of hitting the cattle, the hunters finally drove off the wolves by shouting.

The La Crosse Wolf club, organized last year, is planning several big hunts and has asked La Crosse hunters to join in the chase. The bounty on wolves is $10.

The average automobile needs five new tires each year, or twenty-five during the life of the car.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF RIPPON COLLEGE DEAD

Rippon.—Word reached this city of the sudden death of Dr. R. C. Hughes, former president of Rippon college. Dr. Hughes was connected with the general board of education of the Presbyterian church of Chicago. Dr. Hughes was president of Rippon college nine years, coming here in 1900 and leaving in 1909. Besides his wife he leaves one son and four daughters.

Ferdinand Luetke, a resident of Rippon for the last forty-eight years, passed away at his home in this city of apoplexy, at the age of 76 years.

Mrs. Anna Ravenscroft, former Rippon woman, daughter of Mrs. C. P. Rivenberg of this city, passed away at her home in Chicago after an illness of several months.

LONG HORN STATUTE HITS DEER HUNTERS

Birchwood.—That the present law, which demands that deer to be killed during hunting season next month have horns at least three inches in length, is a good one from the viewpoint of the deer and a bad one from hunters' point of view, is the opinion of northern Wisconsin hunters and sportsmen. Spring bucks, have horns only about an inch long by deer season and these are covered with hair, preventing the hunter from seeing the horns at all. Only bucks from a year and a half, upwards will be killed legally this year, because of the "three inch buck law." A deer one year and a half has horns at least six inches in length. It will be the old, tough and bitter buck which will be the victim this year.

COUNTY MAY TAKE OVER MARATHON FAIR GROUNDS

Wausau.—The board of directors of the Marathon County Agricultural society will present a proposition to the county board to deed the fair grounds, worth at least $120,000, to the county, providing the county erect a grandstand and stock pavilion, estimated to cost $60,000, and also give the society $10,000 as a revolving fund to insure continuation of the county fair.

Other conditions will provide for the gifts of $20,000 from Col. C. C. Yawkey to build up the park, and $10,000 from D. L. Plummer to help the building of a new exhibition building.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. adv.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Schlitz Brothers Company, Voigt's Drug Store, Union Pharmacy have been appointed agents for Allenhu in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit. adv.

TIGER BOSS HAS SPLENDID RECORD

Hughie Jennings Has Led His Team to Three Pennants in Fourteen Years.

Detroit—While patrons of Navin held not all of them however are rejoicing at the thought that Manager Jennings no longer will guide the destinies of the Tigers as wonder if can back on the splendid record the team leader of the Fenwick established here or pay him due respect for the place he put Detroit in on the base ball map.

Give Jennings achievements some thought and the full realization that Hughes proved himself far from the worst manager in the world must occur. In fact, on his record with the Tigers, Jennings not only stands out as one of the most successful that ever piloted a team in the major leagues but is surpassed by few in the history of the national pastime.

In fourteen years at the helm of the Fenwick, Jennings failed to finish in the first division but four times. He won three pennants pulled up in second place twice in third twice and tailed the first division three times.

Twice Hughes led his men into sixth place and a similar number of times he avoided a tail end berth by finish in the seventh. Thus he preserved the record that Detroit never had a last place club since this city became a member of the American league.

Detroit's station in the standings of the league since Jennings took the reins back in the spring of 1907 follows:

1907—Won the pennant.
1908—Won the pennant.
1909—Won the pennant.
1910—Finished third.
1911—Finished second.
1912—Finished sixth.
1913—Finished sixth.
1914—Finished fourth.
1915—Finished second.
1916—Finished third.
1917—Finished fourth.
1918—Finished seventh.
1919—Finished fourth.
1920—Finished seventh.

MAJOR LEAGUES NEED SUPPORT OF TALL GRASS CLUBS

Impossible to Succeed in Baseball Without Minor League Training School.

BUSHERS FOR CLEAN GAME

League Heads Express Desire for New Deal in Baseball Shuffle.

(By Henry L. Farrell)
New York—In the hurried dash for the support of the minors John A. Heydler and the eleven club owners who follow him, seem to have won them over to their idea of baseball.

At present only two courses are open to Ban Johnson and his "faithful five." They must either join the Heydler faction before Nov. 13, or start on a quest of three new clubs to fill their league.

Without the support of the minors this would be almost hopeless. Three new clubs would require at the very least forty-five players and the five clubs remaining with Johnson in the present controversy are not sufficiently fortified in power and numbers to divide their strength.

It therefore seems that the odds in a fight to a decision will go up on the team that the minors fall in behind.

Two minor league heads have aligned themselves with Heydler in his campaign for a change in baseball's government, in messages to the writer.

Want Clean Baseball
"The majority of the minors favor the Lasker plan with a few reservations. I am strong for Comiskey and clean baseball," J. W. Morris, president of the Texas league wired today. "I do not believe the American league should be disorganized or disrupted," wired William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league who is fighting "crooked baseball" in his own league.

But I do strongly advocate a get-together policy which will eliminate the differences of the past and produce a plan, whether it be the Lasker or the present agreement changed, to remedy whatever ills that exist."

Concerted action will be taken by the minors when the major league commission presents its plans at our annual meeting in Kansas City Nov.

9, 10 and 11," said J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National association.

The National league chief has been assured of support by other minor league heads including Walter Rose, Florida state league M. A. Cantillon, South Dakota league Frank Miles, Western Canada league J. V. Jamis, on, Blue Ridge league, and J. C. Leichter, Western association.

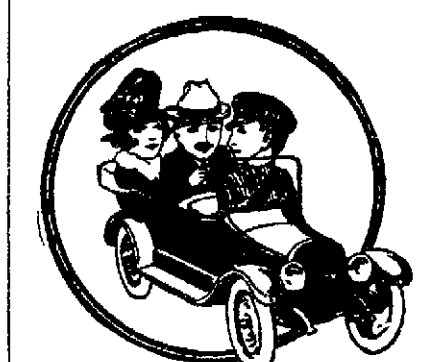

Although Thomas Hickey, president of the American association, has not expressed himself, his stand may be influenced by the following of his club owners who have wired their endorsement to Heydler: William C. Smith, Indianapolis Otto Borchert, Milwaukee Roger Bresnahan, Toledo, George Muelback, Kansas City, George K. Heiden, Minneapolis and W. W. Knebelcamp, Louisville.

Scores of messages have been received from others large and small, among the minors and amateurs.

NO NEW BALL PARK FOR NEW YORK YANKS

New York—Plans for a new stadium home for the New York Yankees have been abandoned.

John Ruppert, president of the club announced on his return from the Chicago convocation he had reached an agreement with Charles A. Stoneham, president of the Giants for the use of the Polo Grounds in 1921 and for an indefinite period in the future.

HARVARD CRIPPLES TO FACE BIG CENTRE TEAM

By United Press Leased Wire
Cambridge, Mass.—Harvard may be forced by an increasing list of casualties to send a patched line-up against Centre Saturday in a game that is holding the attention of the east.

Captain Horween may be able to play but Havemeyer, Kane, Woods and Sedgewick, bulwarks of the heavy line, are doubtful.

Some odds of 5 to 3 have been offered here favoring Harvard while it is reported the New Yorkers are offering 7 to 5.

Odds may change with the arrival of the southerners.

M'GRAW SAYS HE WILL NOT RETIRE FROM GAME

By United Press Leased Wire
New York—John J. McGraw has no intention of retiring as manager of the New York Giants and devoting his attention to the business end of the game, according to F. X. McQuade, treasurer of the club.

His statement was made to refute the report that Hugh Jennings, late manager of the Detroit Tigers and former team mate of the Giant boss, would be at the helm of the New Yorkers next year.

going to have a Mackinaw this year? If he is—are you going to get him one according to price or according to quality? If quality then you surely must see the splendidly styled all wool mackinaws we have for him!

Yes, they cost a few dollars more than just a cotton mixture "fine looking today mackinaw" but they will last twice as long and look as well as when new during the life of the coat.

Paying a little more for quality at the start means a big saving in the end.
